

Thank you to all the simulationists that attended the Spring 2020 Mini Conference on Friday, March 6th 2020 in Brentwood, TN!

It is our hope that this gathering fostered positive networking relationships, generated new ideas, and improves the modalities of simulation delivered at your institution. We look forward to continuing the mini-conference session, and potentially planning for a larger annual conference.

Special thanks to our sponsors for hosting this event!

